DID YOU KNOW..... that many Catholics (of good will) are unclear or uncertain about Catholic moral teaching as it relates to the issue of voting?

A parishioner, who recently spoke to one of our Priests, told him that her sister in Oregon told her that ‘all issues have to be weighed when deciding how to vote.’

That is true, however. . . not all moral acts have the same weight or consequences. (For instance, the moral act of murder is judged and penalized differently than say, the moral act of grand theft. Both are morally wrong, but have very different consequences).

All moral acts are not the same, and, all moral issues are not the same.

The Catholic Church defends human life from conception to natural death. Abortion is never a morally acceptable act, without exception. Pope St. John Paul II in Evangelium Vitae (“The Gospel of Life”) has clearly taught that abortion is never a morally tolerable option.

The American Bishops in their teaching document “Living the Gospel of Life” list different moral issues such as racism, poverty, employment, education, housing, and health care as important matters to consider, and Catholics must work for the best outcome on these very important issues. But to be absolutely clear, the Bishops also say that “being right on such issues can never excuse a wrong choice regarding direct attacks on innocent human life. . .

All direct attacks on innocent human life, such as abortion and euthanasia, strike at the very foundation of all other rights.” The most fundamental right is the right to life. There is not a single issue or even a list of issues that would justify the killing of even one unborn child.

Bishop Thomas Olmsted, the recently retired Bishop of Phoenix, writes the following in his wonderful “Catholics in the Public Square”: “In preparing to vote, Catholics need to understand their faith so that their consciences are properly formed. Subsequent to this formation, it is important to research all of the important issues and candidates that will appear on the ballot.

Only after sufficient preparation and prayer, is a Catholic fully ready to discharge his or her responsibilities as a faithful citizen and cast a meaningful vote.”

While the Catholic Church does not ‘endorse’ candidates for public office, much less a political party, our Bishops, as individuals, and as a National body (United States Conference of Catholic Bishops – website: USCCB), regularly address important issues, as official “teachers of the Faith” and help us to rightly form our consciences, so that we can carry out our civil duties and responsibilities based upon the guidance of the Holy Spirit in union with the Church’s teaching. Remember, that as Catholics, we believe that the Church enjoys the guidance and direction of the Holy Spirit in a way that is far greater and more certain than that of the Holy Spirit’s guidance of any individual. Our belief in this Spirit-breathed authority, which marks a difference between ourselves and other Christian churches, is called the Magisterium – the teaching Office of the Church – endowed with authority from God and providing clear and certain teaching.

(Copies of Bishop Olmsted’s booklet are available at the entrance of the church – take one and read it and be an informed Catholic voter – lives depend upon it!)

There will NOT be religious classes the week of October 31 to November 5 due to our Bazaar preparations. Classes will resume, Monday November 6.

Question of the Week:
The Reward of Humility

“All who exalt themselves will be humbled, but all who humble themselves will be Exalted.”

For Adults: When have you felt self-satisfied in observing the mistakes of others? What should we remember at such times?

For Children: Have you ever thought you were better than someone else? What is the problem with such thoughts?

The knights of Council 4584 is selling Christmas Cards as part of their Keep Christ in Christmas program. We will be offering these cards from now through December 4th after the 8:00 and 10:00 a.m. Sunday Masses and the 12 p.m. Spanish Mass while supplies last. We are offering Christmas cards in English and Spanish, as well as “Keep Christ in Christmas” car magnetic signs. Please stop by the Kiosk during good weather or inside Kino Hall during cold or inclement weather to look at the cards, make your choice, and take home your beautiful 2022 Christmas card offerings. CATHOLIC QUIZ: This Week's Question: "What are 'Mases'?"

The Answer to Last Week's Question: "What are the "Six Wonders Created by the Hand of God?" Writing in 550, St. Gregory of Tours, wrote that the six wonders are: the tides of the ocean; the growth of plants from seeds; the volcano Mount Etna; the rebirth of the phoenix; the cycle of the sun; and, the cycle of the moon. While St. Gregory's world was much smaller, and the mythological re-birth of the phoenix bird from the flames was accepted as fact in the Middle Ages (and is the myth behind the name of our Capital City), the Psalmist invites us to consider that the "heavens declare the glory of God" (Psalm 19). Perhaps you would like to make your own list of the "Wonders Created by the Hand of God"!

(If you would like to be as smart as the "Quiz Master" — pick up a copy of the Catholic Source Book, available in the Parish Office for only $20!)

SOUL FOOD:

"One of Christ's prayers is absolutely exceptional, in that on earth it still goes on forever. One day Christ's prayer was transformed into Sacrament: the Eucharist. Not only Christ's Presence with us to the end of the world, but Christ's prayer is too."

- Fr. Jacques Loew (1908-1999)

KINO SYMPOSIUM

The Kino Heritage Society cordially invites you to attend a symposium. Join us for this special presentation on the life and times of the illustrious Padre Eusebio Francisco Kino.

Keynote Speaker: "Finding Father Kino on the Trail between History and Hagiography"
Michael Brescia, Ph.D.

Dr. Michael M. Brescia is Head of Research and Curator of Ethnohistory in the Arizona State Museum, with faculty affiliations in the Department of History, James E. Rogers College of Law, Division for Late Medieval and Reformation Studies, and the Southwest Center. He teaches a wide range of courses at the UA, such as Mexican history, Comparative History of North America, World History, and historical research methods. Michael is the co-author of two books that examine the broader historical forces that have shaped our continent from Pre-Columbian times to the present: the fourth edition of Mexico and the United States: Ambivalent Vistas (with W. Dirk Raat, University of Georgia Press, 2010), and North America: An Introduction (with John C. Super, University of Toronto Press, 2009). His research, teaching, and public outreach have attracted support over the years from various international and national groups and agencies, including, for example, the Fulbright Scholars Program (Canada and Mexico), Autry Museum of the American West (Los Angeles, Calif.), T.C. Beirne School of Law at the University of Queensland (Australia), El Colegio de San Luis (Mexico), and the Southwestern Mission Research Center (Tucson), among others.

"The Mission of the Catholic Church is .... Evangelization!"

As Baptized Catholics, we all have a stake in this. You don't have to go out into the streets or stand on a corner. But you do have to share your Faith with your family and friends. Jesus said, "Unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink His blood, you have no life within you!" Do you believe this? If you do then would you not want your family and friends to have life everlasting? Just go to:

<https://evangelizationschool.com/school-registration/> and sign up and then when it asks for a donation, scroll to the bottom of the page where it says FREE. Then the next page will ask you if you want to donate one more time, and at the bottom, it says FREE again. Click on that and you are in. Then watch the main program called "Evangelization- the Basics" . It is 18 minutes long and presented by a faculty member of Sacred Heart Major Seminary in Detroit, named Mary Healy.
