DID YOU KNOW....

that we try to balance the need of parishioners to ‘connect’ with each other and the need for reverent quiet before and after Mass?

There has been a gradual ‘erosion’ in the attention to silence, or at least ‘reverent quiet’, especially before the Mass begins.

However, a parish church is not a “private oratory” for a ‘few’ – it belongs to all of the Faithful of the parish, and that means that there must be an accommodation to different styles of prayer and devotion; the need to acknowledge and greet other parishioners AND the need to prepare quietly for the Encounter with the Living God.

The Divine Mercy Chapel, which was designed as a place of greater quiet, Eucharistic Adoration and more ‘private prayer’, also welcomes, at different times: public Novenas (Our Lady of Perpetual Help – on Wednesdays), Monday evening Rosario, charismatic Prayer Groups, Men’s Prayer Group, the monthly Mass for our Korean Community, and, occasionally, even a wedding!

That’s the nature of a parish church, (as distinct from a monastery or a private oratory) – it must be open to all and welcoming of different spiritual needs, prayer styles, and devotions, with primary emphasis, of course, on the Sacred Liturgy.

Catholic churches are not simply “houses of prayer”, they are a particular and unique location of the Divine Presence! Because the community (not just ‘individuals’) gathers here, it is understood that there will be a certain amount of conversation and conviviality, as we greet and ‘connect’ with our sisters and brothers in Christ. The community itself, is, according to Catholic teaching, a place of the “Presence of the Lord”. And so, it is entirely appropriate to acknowledge the presence of one another and express our appreciation for the reality of this particular community. We need to reverence the Presence of God in the gathered Community – in each other.

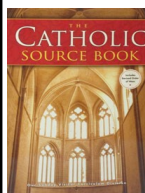

The ‘announcement time’, before Mass starts, is understood to be a moment when we can acknowledge one another – in the Lord’s Presence – and affirm the bonds of community, hence the announcements about those things which touch upon the spiritual health and well-being of the Community, now gathered. (In some parishes, this is done at the end of Mass, before the final Prayer or before the Dismissal – there is no ‘hard-and-fast’ rule on when announcements are to be made.)

Again, it is really about finding an appropriate balance between the genuine need of the Community to make person-to-person connection as an expression of the ‘Body of Christ’ AND the individual worshiper’s need to prayerfully prepare to enter the Presence of God – in Word and Sacrament!

As with so much else in our Catholic Faith, it is not an “either/or” but a “both/and”! It’s really about finding the balance: of reverence for God AND of respect for others!

CATHOLIC QUIZ: This week’s Question: “What is the ‘Power of the Keys’”?

The Answer to Last Week’s Question: “Who was ‘Pere Marquette’”?

A city in Michigan, lakes in Wisconsin, steamships, and even a railroad serving the upper mid-west, are named for this intrepid Jesuit missionary/ explorer! Born in France in 1637, he served in French Canada, founding the first European settlement in Michigan – Sault Ste. Marie. In 1673, Pere (‘Father’ in French) Jacques Marquette and layman Louis Joliet, and five other Frenchmen, began their expedition to explore the Mississippi River. Their two-year expedition proved that the Mississippi flows south to empty in the Gulf of Mexico, rather than west to the Pacific, as was popularly thought! (Like his fellow Jesuit, Padre Eusebio Francisco Kino, he was first and foremost a missionary, seeking the salvation of souls – but the explorations that they made, in search of new Native Peoples to evangelize, changed the maps of the world!)

Pere Marquette died on the return journey to Canada, but his travel diaries were carried back and carefully read!

There are four Roman Catholic Priests who ‘represent’ their States in the U.S. House of Representatives Hall of Statuary: Padre Eusebio Kino (Arizona), Pere Marquette (Wisconsin), Padre Junipero Serra (California) and St. Damien of Moloki (Hawaii)!

If you would like to be as smart as the “Quiz Master” — you can purchase a copy of the Catholic Source Book, available in the Parish Office.

SOUL FOOD:

“Eschatology is the fulfillment of the Easter faith of the Church. Faith in the Returning Lord is only the fruit of faith in the Risen Lord. The world cannot remain as it is, because Christ did not remain in the grave!”

-Hans Lilje (1899-1977)

Saint of the week

St. Paschal Baylón was a devout Spanish monk. In his vocation as a lay brother, he worked as a chef, porter, gardener, and official beggar. He often gave so much to the poor that his brothers tried to limit his generosity. Because of his devotion to the Blessed Sacrament, he is the Patron Saint of Eucharistic Congresses and Societies.

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

Today the Church throughout the world prays for vocations. Will you make a special effort to ask the Lord for more vocations to the priesthood and religious life?

Pray for the priests who have ministered to you throughout your life, both living and dead.

Keep our parish priests in your prayers throughout the week. Encourage your children, grandchildren, or other young people to consider a vocation as a priest or religious brother or sister. Pray a rosary for more young men and women in our diocese to respond to God's call.

Vocation Prayer

Lord Jesus, Son of the Eternal Father and Mary Immaculate, grant to our young people the generosity necessary to follow Your call and the courage required to overcome all obstacles to their vocation. Give the parents faith, love and spirit of sacrifice which will inspire them to offer their children to God's service and to rejoice whenever one of their children is called to the priesthood and religious life. Let your example and that of Your Blessed Mother and Saint Joseph encourage both young people and parents and let Your grace sustain them. Amen.

-From the dioceses of Sioux Falls and Rapid City

HAND CARVED in BETHLEHEM

PLEASE STOP BY THE RELIGIOUS WARES TABLES
(Nativity set, rosaries, statues, crucifixes, charms, etc.)
AFTER ALL THE MASSES
THE WEEKEND OF May 11 & 12

Ayman Khair is representing about 180 Christian families from Bethlehem. These families have been dependent upon sales of their hand carved religious articles to tourists of the Holy Land. Due to the conflict in the Middle East and the Pandemic, tourism has been stopped completely from March 2, 2020, till February 2022, and now because of what is going on in the Holy Land tourism has stopped completely.

It is very important to support them at this critical time since they have no income and there is no tourism at all. In order to survive, they have turned to Christian communities in the United States to purchase their articles.

These hand carved religious articles are beyond description. Carved from wood of the sacred Olive tree, this workmanship has been traditional for these families for hundreds of years. It is hoped that through the efforts of Mr. Khair, these families who have little income will be able to stay living and survive in the Holy Land.

Sadly enough, the Christian population dropped from 22 % to less than 2% in the last 20 years.

Have you felt a calling to be a Eucharistic Minister for the sick or homebound?

The requirements for Eucharistic Ministers of Holy Communion include:

- a) You must be an active Catholic.
- b) You may be either male or female.
- c) You must be eighteen (18) years of age or older.
- d) You must have received all Sacraments of Initiation (Baptism, Holy Eucharist, and Confirmation).

2024 Easter letter

It was very early on the first day of the week and still dark, when Mary of Magdala came to the tomb... John 20:1.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ!

We as a people of faith celebrate that most holy of holy events, when Christ came forward from the tomb to greet some of the very first Christians even while it was “very early...and still dark.” Although like Mary Magdalene, it is not possible for us to fully understand just how meaningful this event remains—throughout our lives and for all of the history of humanity: Christ is Risen! Death and sin and evil no longer have ultimate power over all.

We witness events occurring in the world that can frighten or confuse us. War, suffering, and tensions continue. We pray for the people in those areas who suffer and, perhaps though not fully understanding how these tragedies can occur, can echo only that thought which must have remained close to the Blessed Mother’s heart and on her lips throughout Good Friday before the Cross and Holy Saturday: “This is not the final word!” Indeed, only God has the final word, and His word—because of the Resurrection of His Son—is life.

While very much remaining emersed in daily life within the world we live, we are called never to forget that every moment and every event is rooted in eternity. As one holy person often reminded those with whom he lived: “Because we are Christians, we affirm that, all that is the very best, the most remarkable, is very much ahead.”

In Kyrgyzstan, our Catholic community is indeed one of the smallest in the world. Pope Francis reminds us that “small is not a problem for God, but an opportunity.” We join with our Catholic brothers and sisters throughout the world (numbering more than a billion) and other Christians in both looking back to this paschal event which changed the world entirely and forever....and, at the same time, looking forward, with hope in that moment when we will see Christ “as He is.” Our lives here have meaning and joy to the extent that we are able and willing to see them in light of this first Easter. God is never far, even if His activity is not always visible to us. He is all-powerful and He knows every one of our moments of joy, of sorrow—all of our questions and concerns. Our concerns become His concerns; our joys and sorrows His too. He carries all in His heart. May these days of the Easter Season deepen our faith and trust in his care.

Allow me to wish you and your families a very blessed Easter Season, health, strength...and God’s abundant blessings. Christos Voskres!

Seminarian Corner

Last Sunday morning I visited the 3rd, 4th, and 5th grade Catechism classes to invite the kids to altar serve and teach them about the Mass. That evening, I MC'd the Confirmation Mass here at the parish with Bishop Weisenburger. Since then, I assisted at All Saints Catholic School and attended an all day workshop with the school principals and pastors of our Diocese. I took a trip to Denver to visit my seminarian brothers from the Diocese of Phoenix at the seminary they attend - St. John Vianney Seminary.

I also attended our COR Men's Group and served at the Blessing of the Vines event at the Sonoita Vintage.

Book: The Power and the Glory by Graham Greene

Mexico, the late 1930s: A paramilitary group has outlawed the Catholic Church and is executing its clergy. Now the last priest is on the run...tempted to renounce his religion yet unable to ignore the higher calling he's chosen. Timeless and unforgettable, The Power and the Glory is a stunning portrait of both physical and spiritual survival by a master dramatist of the human soul.

"Greene's masterpiece . . . The energy and grandeur of his finest novel derive from the . . . will toward compassion. . . . It succeeds . . . resoundingly." —John Updike, from the Introduction

"Greene had wit and grace and character and story and a transcendent universal compassion that places him for all time in the ranks of world literature." —John le Carré

We will discuss this novel on May 21st, the traditional commemoration day of the "Martyrs of the Mexican Revolution."
