DID YOU KNOW.....

that our teachers – public, parochial, home school, catechism – need your help?

As difficult as the past two years have been on all of us, in terms of trying to maintain normalcy and stability in our lives, trying to keep folks safe AND connected, perhaps our teachers – in all school settings – have faced some of the greatest challenges.

“Distant learning” (livestream), “hybrid” (in person and distant teaching), and social distancing requirements to keep children and staff safe during the pandemic, was a new experience for all educators, and nothing in their academic training or previous classroom experience would have prepared them for the challenges that they were called upon to deal with every day.

Sadly, for many, it proved to be too much of a challenge and often with too little support from the community, the parents, and administrators, all dealing with their own challenges imposed by the new ‘norms’!

What can we do? First and foremost, recognize that teaching is a sacred vocation – a special calling from God! The only ‘title’ which was given to our Lord in His public ministry was “Teacher” – (Rabbi) and He declared that He was sent to teach (Mark 1:38), and ‘having compassion on the crowds of people, like sheep without a shepherd’, “He began to teach them many things.”

(Mark 6:34) And so, teaching is understood as a Corporal Work of Mercy, a participation in our Lord’s own mission of salvation!

The second thing that we can do, is to pray for our teachers – in all school settings!

St. John Baptist de La Salle, the founder of the teaching Order ‘the Christian Brothers’, wrote a beautiful prayer for teachers: “You, O Lord, are my strength, my patience, my light, and my counsel. It is You who touch the hearts of the children entrusted to my care. Abandon me not to myself for one moment. For my own guidance and that of my students, grant me the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and fortitude, the spirit of knowledge and piety, the spirit of holy reverence for You and an ardent zeal to procure Your glory. I unite my efforts to those of JESUS Christ, and I beg the most Blessed Virgin, St. Joseph, and the Guardian angels of my students, to protect me this day in the performance of my duties. Amen.” Perhaps you could use this prayer to ‘shape’ your prayer for our teachers, and perhaps you could share this prayer with a favorite teacher!

The third thing that we can do for our teachers, as they fulfill their sacred vocation, is to volunteer to assist them in whatever way is appropriate for their classroom setting: tutoring, aiding, reading to students, sending notes of encouragement, and, if you are the parent of a student, to recognize that your child’s teachers are among your closest and most Important collaborators in helping your child to discover and use their gifts, and to come to mature, happy, and focused adulthood!

Again, St. Jean-Baptiste de La Salle wrote: “To touch the hearts of your students is the greatest miracle you can perform.”

Thank a teacher today, and remember in prayer the teachers who have touched your heart!

FAITH FORMATION 2022-2023

It is time to prepare for Faith Formation Classes which will begin in September 2022. Please remember that forming your children in their faith is a promise all parents make at the time of the child’s Baptism.

Registration forms are available in the entry to Church, in the Parish Office, and on the Saint Andrew’s website. Registration forms are for all levels from age 3 years through Confirmation.

New Catechists and aides are needed to make our year successful. Sharing your faith with children brings great rewards.

Please contact Sr. Joellen with your Interest, all levels appreciated.

Question of the Week: Running the Race of Faith

For Adults: When has your taking a strong stand on a moral issue created division rather than healing in the short term?

For Children: Is it important to do the right thing even if others are angry as a result? Why or why not?

SCAM ALERT

NO ONE from St. Andrew’s Parish including the office staff nor the clergy will e-mail, call, text or communicate in any manner for solicitation of funds. If you receive an e-mail or text message requesting funds on behalf of Fr. Greg or anyone connected with the Parish, delete it immediately. Never give your personal information to anyone regardless of who they say they are. Scammers prey upon parishioners and are active in our area.

CATHOLIC QUIZ: This Week's Question: "Who was the Saint Louis, for whom the city in Missouri was named?"

The Answer to Last Week's Question: "What is the 'Holy Falling Asleep of the Virgin'?" It refers to the 'falling asleep in death' of the Blessed Virgin Mary, which preceded her assumption. The Church of the Dormition of the Virgin, on Mount Zion, and the Tomb of the Virgin near the Basilica of Gethsemane, (both in Jerusalem), are two beloved Marian shrines.

The Church of the Dormition dominates the skyline of SW Jerusalem. The Scriptures record that our Lord gave the care of His widowed Mother to St. John, and tradition holds that she accompanied him to Ephesus. At the time of her death, in Jerusalem, where she had returned, the Apostles helped John to prepare her tomb – a 'temporary' place for all of us, but more so for her, as things happened. She was assumed body and soul into heaven. A band of Crusader script, in the ancient Tomb of the Virgin at the foot of the Mount of Olives, reads: "This is the Vale of Jehosaphat, where begins the roadway to the stars. Mary, favored by God, was buried here, and incorruptible was raised to the skies. Hope of captives, their light, their path, their Mother."

(If you would like to be as smart as the "Quiz Master" — pick up a copy of the Catholic Source Book, available in the Parish Office for only $20!)

SOUL FOOD:

"Eat My Flesh,' JESUS says, 'and drink My Blood!' The Lord Himself supplies us with these intimate nutrients, He Himself gives us His Flesh and pours out His Blood, so that nothing is lacking for the growth of His children."

- St. Clement of Alexandria (150-211)

Brothers and Sisters In Christ,

The Catechism of the Catholic Church says in number 1816 "The disciple of Christ must not only keep the faith and live on it but also profess it, confidently bear witness to it: "All however must be prepared to confess Christ before men and to follow him along the way of the Cross, amidst the persecutions which the Church never lacks. "Service of and witness to the faith are necessary for salvation". Wow, witness to the faith is necessary for salvation! Scripture tells us in Philemon 1:6 "and I pray that the sharing of your faith may become effective for the full knowledge of every good thing that is in us for the sake of Christ" When you know Christ, you want to share Christ with your knowledge of Him.

Many are afraid of sharing their Faith,

Your parents may have said, "You don't talk about religion or politics"

But Jesus said, in Matthew 4:19, "Come follow me, and I will make you fishers of men".

There is much to learn about sharing your faith. We at Saint. Paul Evangelization Institute have made it easy for you.

Just go to:

<https://evangelizationschool.com/school-registration/>

and put in your name and e-mail address and then go to the next page that shows money donations and click on more, and at the bottom is a button that says "FREE". When you click that it takes you to another donation page and the bottom on the bottom says "Free" again. Click on that and then give your info on the next page and you are all set.

We have over 100 short videos showing how to speak to any religion or atheist which will include your children who left the faith.

If you need things to send to your family or friends you are trying to help see the Truth of the Catholic Church, contact Ed Graveline at 520-678-0897 or

EdwardGraveline@gmail.com

A Special Thank You

Many thanks for all the prayers and cards for healing and getting better. They are making recovery much more tolerable and reflective. Thanks to Fr. Samuel for the anointing. And, a special thanks to God for his healing graces – physically, emotionally, and spiritually!

Blessings, Dcn John

Are there 'statutes of limitations' regarding confession?

Question: Are there "statutes of limitations" regarding confession? For instance, if I stole a candy bar as a child, never confessed it but still remember it as an adult, should I confess it? What about more serious sins that I've never confessed?

Answer: When one confesses their sins, they are forgiven from all the sins they have committed since their last confession. Since it is not possible to remember or state every single venial sin (or small sin), it is sufficient to mention non-mortal sins in a general way, such as, "I am guilty of anger, gossip, or inattentiveness at prayer," and so forth. However, one is only required to state serious sins in kind and number, such as, "I committed the sin of looking at pornography on two occasions."

Given our often poor memory, things will be forgotten. For this reason many penitents conclude their confession by saying: "For these and any other sins I cannot recall, I ask pardon and absolution."

As for those times one forgets to mention a mortal sin, as long as one does not intentionally fail to mention the sin, the confession is valid. When one recalls that they forgot to mention it, they should mention it in the next confession. This is also true of more serious sins from the distant past that we remember and have not brought to confession. Since it may have been true that you did not know you had to confess such matters, or simply forgot to confess them in the sacrament, your confessions since then have been valid. However, it is proper to bring these to confession now, or as you remember. In cases, however, where a person commits mortal sin(s) and intentionally fails or refuses to mention it to the priest in confession, the confession is invalid and absolution is not granted. This would also affect all subsequent confessions until the problem is resolved by the penitent confessing what they did in kind and number. Stealing the candy bar as a young child was not likely mortal due to age and was included in your intention to seek absolution in a general way for all of your sins. But since you still remember it, it may help to bring it to the Lord in confession.

To be clear, then, it is only when one refuses to confess a serious sin they know they have committed that a confession is invalid. Honest forgetfulness happens, and in cases of recovered memory, it is proper to bring the matter, if more serious, to confession in the future.

-Msgr. Charles Pope in Our Sunday Visitor

Are You Called to Carmel?

We, in the Mary, Queen and Beauty of Carmel Discalced Carmelite Secular Community, invite you to “come and see” if you might have a vocation to Carmel. Aspirants are admitted in September, so our July and August meetings offer an opportunity to attend and have your questions answered. We meet the second Saturday of each month at St. Andrew the Apostle Church in Sierra Vista from 9 a.m. until 2:30 p.m., beginning with Mass and a half hour of silent prayer and adoration; we pray the Liturgy of the Hours and participate in Lectio Divina; we discuss topics related to our Carmelite vocation; we listen to a conference; we share a lunch and participate a class in which we study the works of St. Teresa of Avila, St. John of the Cross, St. Therese of Lisieux, St. Elizabeth of the Trinity, and other Carmelite writers. We also hold a yearly retreat. Under the protection of Mary, Queen and Beauty of Carmel, we grow in our vocation to be love in the heart of the Church.

From Your Parish Library

“To the Field of Stars tells the fascinating story of Fr. Kevin Codd’s unusual spiritual and physical journey on foot across Spain to Santiago de Compostelo, the traditional burial place of the apostle James the Greater. Each brief chapter chronicling this thirty-five-day trek is dedicated to one or two days on the road. Fr. Codd shares tales of other pilgrims, his own changes of perspective, and his challenges and triumphs along the way – all told with disarming candor. Seen through the eyes of a Catholic priest who honors the religious worldview that originally gave rise to these medieval odysseys, ‘pilgrimage’ comes to life and takes on new meaning in these pages.”
