DID YOU KNOW....

that there is a cost to being a disciple of JESUS Christ? Many of us living in comfortable and affluent societies seem to assume that being a Christian does not require any serious sacrifice or even discomfort.

The Nigerian Priests serving among us, Fr. Samuel and Fr. Jude, bring us a sometimes not gentle reminder of the real situation for many, if not most, Catholics in the world today. There is certainly a real undercurrent of anti-Catholicism in our own country, which has been there since the beginning of European settlement, mixed with later anti-immigrant and racist views. But the reality of open persecution is not something that most Americans have had to experience.

We celebrate the love of God with the universal symbol of the Cross, so it is strange that those who claim to be followers of JESUS rarely consider the true “cost of discipleship,” as the Lutheran theologian and martyr (1945) Dietrick Bonhoeffer put it. Instead, many opt for what Bonhoeffer referred to as “cheap grace,” a kind of ‘Christianity-lite’ that aligns comfortably with the surrounding culture and with our own interests and priorities.

The late Catholic theologian Fr. Virgil Elizondo spoke of the subtle undermining of the Faith in developed First World countries, (like the U.S.) by what he called the ‘three C’s’: Comfort, Compromise, Complacency. Fr. Virgil said that if Comfort is our highest priority and value (and much of what we call ‘security’ is actually an addiction to Comfort), then we will begin making serious moral Compromises (“I don’t want to make anyone uncomfortable – (or myself!) – by standing up for the Truth and for the values of the Catholic Faith.”) When there is this kind of Compromise, then inevitably we become Complacent about the Truth, about the Gospel and its demands! Truth-Beauty-Goodness – the triad of Absolutes because they have their Source in God, become “relative” (“My truth is not necessarily someone else’s truth.” “Perhaps those people had their own reasons for slavery. . . or the Holocaust. . . or promoting abortion. . .”)

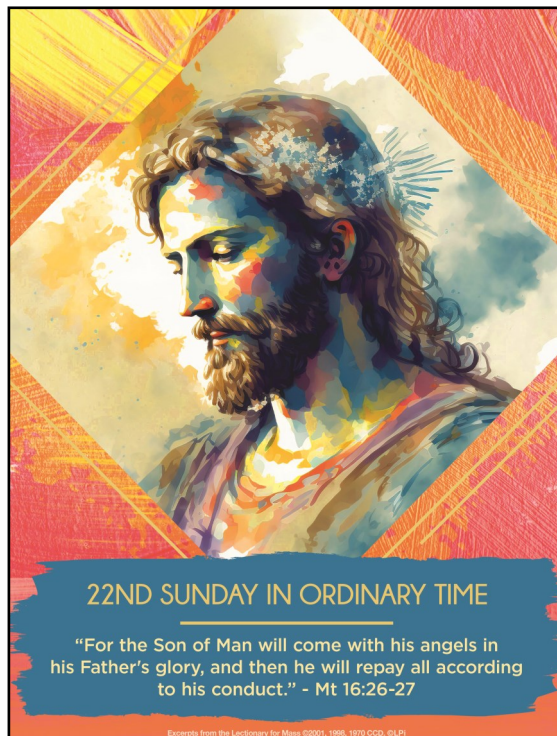

This form of persecution, subtly eroding the foundations, rather than openly attacking the Church, can be clearly seen in every sector of life – including relentless attacks on the basic building block of society: the family.

It is a good time to reevaluate our own Christian commitments. When confronted with evil or injustice, do we ask “What would JESUS have me do?” Or “What does the Church teach me about this issue?” Or do we prefer to not ‘rock the boat’ or place ourselves in an un-Comfortable position, so as to avoid the opposition, hatred, and persecution which JESUS says will come to His disciples, to His Church?

What are we willing to do or give or give up in order to be authentic disciples of Christ?

How we answer that kind of question reveals a lot about our priorities for life and what kind of Christians we are.

This weekend we have the icon of “Our Lady, Help of the Persecuted” present in the church, courtesy of the Knights of Columbus! Prayer/Intercession cards are also available for your use!

CATHOLIC QUIZ: This week's Question: "What is the Exaltation of the Holy Cross?"

The Answer to Last Week's Question: "What about JESUS' 'brothers and sisters' mentioned in the Bible?" The Scriptures are explicit: 'How can this be, since I am a virgin?' In both Aramaic (the language spoken in Palestine) and the Hebrew of the Old Testament, 'brothers' means close relatives, such as 'cousins', for which there is no word in Aramaic or Hebrew. The phrase 'brothers of the Lord' does not refer to other children of Mary (see: Mark 3:31-35; 6:3; 1 Corinthians 9:5; Galatians 1:19). James and Joseph, 'brothers of JESUS,' are, in fact, sons of another Mary, who was a disciple of the Lord (Matthew 13:55, 28:1; Matthew 27:56). The early and consistent belief of the Church was, and is, that Mary was a virgin at the time of JESUS' conception, and remained in the virginal state throughout her life, and, thus, had no other 'offspring'. The Eastern Orthodox Church, likewise proclaiming the 'perpetual virginity' of Mary, has offered an ancient tradition that the 'brethren of the Lord' were the children of Joseph by his first marriage, and thus, were not 'blood-relatives' of Mary or, of course, JESUS.

If you would like to be as smart as the "Quiz Master" — pick up a copy of the Catholic Source Book, available in the Parish Office.

SOUL FOOD:

"It is most important that the Holy Eucharist becomes life's focal point: that the Eucharistic Savior is the center of existence. In this way, God is given the best opportunity to be heard in the heart, to form the soul, and to make our souls clear-sighted and alert for the supernatural."

- St. Benedicta Teresa of the Cross (Edith Stein) (1891-1942)

Sacristan

We are in need of a sacristan/altar server for the Monday, 9:00 a.m. Mass, and the Sunday 12:00 p.m. Spanish Mass.

If you feel called to serve at Mass and assist the Priest, please call the office, and let us know! We will provide the training.

This is a very beautiful ministry, and a true gift to be able to serve and assist the Priest at the altar.

Heart Speaks to Heart

Calling all men 18 and older.
Join us for our 3rd Cor Dialog – an hour of Faith,
Formation and Fraternity

When: Saturday, September 16, 2023 after the 9 a.m. Mass
Where: St. Andrew the Apostle Catholic Church
800 Taylor Drive, Sierra Vista, AZ 85635

What: Cor is Latin for “heart”. The inspiration for this name is drawn from the expression “cor ad cor loquitur”, “heart speaks to heart.” This was the episcopal motto of St. John Henry Newman and a variation of St. Francis de Sales “cor cordi loquitur.” This phrase holds multiple meanings. How God speaks to man, how man speaks to man, and how man speaks to God. As brothers in Christ and members of his holy Church, we understand the importance and necessity of how the masculine heart speaks to each other within true Christian friendship.

True Christian friendship, that is committed to building each other up in imitation of Christ, is a crucial component of a vibrant Catholic life.

Nuestra Señora del Carmen, ruega por nosotros.

¡Recemos el Rosario, Arizona!

Prayer boxes are located at most parishes throughout the Diocese of Tucson so you can write out your prayer intentions and drop them in the box. Your parish representative will bring the box of prayer intentions to Arizona Rosary Celebration. We will pray together to lift your intentions to God during the celebration, and we will continue praying for your intentions all year.

Please download a prayer intention slip in English and Spanish and write down your prayer intentions. Put the written prayer intentions in the box at your parish or bring them to the celebration in October and place them in the prayer intention basket when you come into St. Augustine Cathedral. God bless you.
