DID YOU KNOW.....

why Catholic Christians commemorate the dead during the month of November?

Abbot Odilo of the great French Abbey of Cluny introduced the festival of All Souls in 998 for members of his own religious order. Later, in the 14th century, All Souls was adopted by Rome for the entire Church. It is dedicated to the memory of all the faithful departed. All Saints Day and All Souls Day set the tone for the month of November. All Souls are our family and relatives, our neighbors and friends, our ancestors, that “cloud of witnesses” who accepted the spiritual realism of their lives, shared it with others already on earth, and continue to do so now before the throne of the Lamb in heaven. For this reason, they are truly blessed, and give us a reason to hope, to believe, to struggle and to live. The feast of All Souls and the month of November is a source of consolation for each of us.

The consoling doctrine of the Communion of Saints allows us to feel ever close to those who have died and gives us much hope in moments of despair and sadness. The holy souls in purgatory see ever more clearly what we can only intuit from afar.

They are already within reach of eternal life, the loving embrace of God; but they are not yet completely within His embrace.

The sting of death has been removed, but they are still sensing the pain of love which only complete union with JESUS can heal. The healing process is accomplished by the same love which makes the separation momentarily very painful.

Our prayers for the faithful departed increase faith and love within us; they draw us to look upon the Son with ever greater longing. In a very moving, personal reflection on his imminent death, in 1996, the late Cardinal Joseph Bernardin of Chicago wrote the book The Gift of Peace several weeks before going to God. At the end of his personal testament he wrote:

“Many people have asked me to tell them about heaven and the afterlife. I sometimes smile at the request because I do not know any more than they do. Yet, when one young man asked if I looked forward to being united with God and all those who have gone before me, I made a connection to something I said earlier in this book. The first time I traveled with my mother and sister to my parents’ homeland of Tonadico di Primiero, in northern Italy, I felt as if I had been there before. After years of looking through my mother’s photo albums, I knew the mountains, the land, the houses, the people. As soon as we entered the valley, I said, “My God, I know this place. I am home.” Somehow I think crossing from this life into eternal life will be similar. I will be home.”

Let us spend our earthly pilgrimage filling our minds with the thoughts of heaven, so that when we finally cross over into eternal life, the images we see may not be foreign, startling or strange. Let us pray that we, too, may be able to say: “My God, I know this place. I am home.”

Question of the Week: Overcoming Difficulties

Jesus said, “You will be hated by all because of my name. But not a hair of your head will perish. By your endurance you will gain your souls.” (Luke 21:17-19)

For Adults: When bad things happen, how do you deal with them?

For Children: Have you ever worried about something that might happen? What can help you worry less?

CATHOLIC QUIZ: This Week's Question: What is the 'Rite of Committal'?"

"The Answer to Last Week's Question: "What is the 'Mass of Resurrection'?" The 'Mass of Resurrection' refers only to the solemn Mass of Easter Sunday. In recent years, obituary columns mistakenly call the "Mass of Christian Burial" (a Funeral Mass), a 'Mass of Resurrection'. The 'Mass of Resurrection' refers to the Resurrection of Christ only, and it is in the 'hope of the Resurrection' that Mass is celebrated for a deceased Catholic: the "Mass of Christian Burial". To 'anticipate' the Judgment of God, declaring the deceased to already be in Heaven, is a presumption, and would deny them the prayers, Masses, and sacrifices which they need for their final purification in Purgatory.

(If you would like to be as smart as the "Quiz Master" — pick up a copy of the Catholic Source Book, available in the Parish Office for only $20!)

SOUL FOOD:

When I was younger, I was rather severe. I said, the Sacraments are Sacraments of faith, where the practice of faith does not exist, the Sacraments cannot be conferred either. . . then I too, with time, came to realize that we must rather follow the example of the Lord, Who was very open, even with people on the margins of Israel at that time. He was the Lord of mercy, open with sinners, welcoming them and letting them invite Him to their dinners, drawing them into His communion. . ."

- Pope Benedict XVI (1927 -)

November Devotion: The Holy Souls in Purgatory

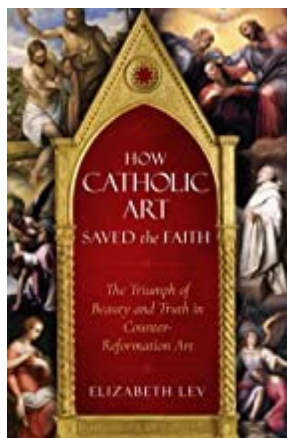

We will remember and honor our loved ones in prayer every Tuesday in November at 3:00 p.m. in the church. To help the Holy Souls in Purgatory, we will pray:

The Divine Mercy Chaplet
The Seven Sorrows Rosary
The Golden Arrow prayer
The Litany for the Holy Souls in Purgatory
The St. Gertrude prayer

Rosaries and prayer cards will be provided!

As St. Pio of Pietrelcina once said, "We must empty Purgatory with our prayers." Yes, he was convinced that it can be done... and we should be, too.

From Your Parish Library

How Catholic Art Saved the Faith, Elizabeth Liv.

"Not long after Martin Luther's defiance of the Church, dialogue between Protestants and Catholics broke down and religious wars erupted across Europe. Desperate to restore the unity of Faith, Catholic theologians turned to the arts to help reaffirm Catholic doctrines. Convinced that to win over the unlettered, the best place to fight heresy was not in the streets but in stone and on canvas, they enlisted the best artists to create a glorious wave of beautiful works of sacred art to draw people together. Here's the story of the vibrant, visual-arts SWAT team whose war cry could have been 'Art for Faith's sake!' You'll meet the fascinating artists who formed this cadre's core. You'll revel in their full-color paintings. And you'll profit from the lucid explanations of their lovely creations: works that over the centuries have touched the hearts and deepened the faith of millions."

""The Mission of the Catholic Church is Evangelization! "

As Baptized Catholics, we all have a stake in this. You don't have to go out into the streets or stand on a corner, But you do have to share your Faith with your family and friends. Jesus said, "Unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink His blood, you have no life within you!" Do you believe this? If you do then would you not want your family and friends to have life everlasting? The Catechism of the Catholic Church says in 1816 "...Service of and Witness to the faith are necessary for Salvation!"

To learn how to share your faith, go to <https://stpaulevangelization.com/>

Pipe Organ Progress

Installation of our new Petersen controller and upgrade to sounds has begun! Pipe Organ Artisans of Arizona (Grahame Davis, owner) began preparing the pipes for their update in September and is now installing the controller and finishing upgrades. So we will have no music from the pipe organ for about 4 weeks. It was possible to go ahead with this important project only because of your generosity and a loan from our Finance Council. In order to repay the loan, we are again offering pipes to be "adopted" for donations ranging from $10-$500! When you "adopt" a pipe, you are helping our pipe organ support the singing of God's praise. You will receive a Certificate of Adoption and we will record your name in our list of donors. You can also "adopt" a pipe in a loved one's name. What a wonderful Christmas present that would be! Want to "adopt a pipe"? Or do you have questions about the pipe organ? Please call Rebecca Williams at 520.234.0888
