DID YOU KNOW....

that in the Church, we like to build things? We build churches, parish halls, schools, and many other kinds of structures to carry on our mission. But as important as these structures are, they are not central to our mission, which is to share the Gospel of JESUS Christ and help all people become mature and intentional disciples, to share the very Life of God, which is “Eternal Life”! At the dedication of a new church, a Bishop made a somewhat startling but accurate remark that, church buildings are simply ‘scaffolding for the Kingdom’. They give us support in building up the Kingdom in our midst, but they are not themselves the Kingdom of God, and like all scaffolding they will someday come down. Only the Kingdom of God – our relationship with God and with one another in the Body of Christ will endure forever. (One of our Priests, in responding to the comments of visitors on the beauty of the church always says, “Yes, and the building is nice too!”) “To know JESUS Christ and to make Him known” is our Mission and that should always be the primary focus of our lives as individual Christians, as families, and as a Parish! While Maintenance is important – good stewardship and the responsible care for that which has been entrusted to us – Mission is absolutely essential! Pope Benedict XVI of blessed memory said, “The Church doesn’t ‘have a mission’. The Church is mission, or it’s not the Church of JESUS Christ!” In the annual report of the Parish/Finance Council to the Parish, which was handed out on the weekend of 9-10 September (see this week’s bulletin- additional copies are available in the Parish Office and the Gathering Room), you will see that 31% of our budget is marked for local and world-wide mission. Your generosity extends – quite literally – around the world, because we believe that building up the Body of Christ and providing ‘scaffolding for the Kingdom’ must be our priority – in Nepal, Haiti, Ecuador, Mexico, Bethlehem, Nigeria, Kenya, on two college campuses, here ‘at home’ in Sierra Vista and across the Diocese of Tucson!! We are very, very grateful that you support this vision for what it means to be the Church! Thank you for taking the time to read and reflect on the Annual Report and thank you for responding so generously to the request for a ‘cost of living raise’ for the Parish. Many of you have indicated your willingness to increase your contributions to help the Parish deal with the impact of inflation on almost everything necessary for maintaining our many ministries and programs! Those of us who are in a position of being able to and will make an increase in our giving are exercising a deep charity – “going the extra mile” by providing for the Parish and its needs, and doing this especially for our younger families and those with limited resources.

“We may not have it altogether, but together – in Christ – we have it all!”

25th Sunday IN ORDINARY TIME

"Did you not agree with me for the usual daily wage? Take what is yours and go. What if I wish to give this last one the same as you? Or am I not free to do as I wish with my own money? Are you envious because I am generous? Thus, the last will be first, and the first will be last."

- Mt 20:13c-16

CATHOLIC QUIZ: This week's Question: "Is there a "Patron Saint of Alcoholics"?"

The Answer to Last Week's Question: "What is the so-called 'Straw of a Genius'?"
St. Thomas Aquinas (1225-1274), died before he was fifty, but he left behind a towering monument of scholarship, and something even greater. In 1273, sensing the approaching end of his life, he put aside his Summa Theologica. This, his masterwork, was destined to be a classic systematic exposition of theology and has had an enormous and continuing impact of Catholic theology. After a deep religious experience, while in adoration before the Blessed Sacrament, St. Thomas declared his unwillingness to finish this scholarly masterpiece, saying: "All that I have written seems to me like so much straw compared to what I have seen and what has been revealed to me!" A beautiful, grace-filled reminder from this genius saint, that the reality of God surpasses all human ability to grasp or explain!

If you would like to be as smart as the "Quiz Master" — you can purchase a copy of the Catholic Source Book, available in the Parish Office.

SOUL FOOD:

As I Lay Dying

Meditations
Upon Returning

RICHARD JOHN NEUHAUS

As I Lay Dying, by Fr. Richard John Neuhaus. This "is the story, sometimes grim but always graceful, of Father Neuhaus' encounter with death and what he learned from that encounter. He draws on philosophy, psychology, science, poetry, literature, and theology in speaking to the questions he asked himself on his journey back to life. Can soul and body be separated? If so, what happens to the self? Is dying something we do, or something that just happens to us, or is it both? Is it to be feared, fought, accepted, or explored with intellectual and spiritual curiosity? Can we really live on in others, and how can they receive the gift of our lives once we've passed on? What is a good death? Or can there be anything good about death?" His meditations "shake the foundation of our being, and then lead, oddly but convincingly, to a peace that is on the far side of our fear and our temptation to despair."

September 27: Feast of St. Vincent de Paul

Deeds Inspired by Love

Frederic Ozanam was a Frenchman whose life of only forty years ended in 1893. The France in which he lived remained torn as a result of the French Revolution in the late 1700s. The Roman Catholic Church had suffered the loss, not only of property and power, but of many lives, and its leadership had become reactionary. As a result, the Church, and even Christianity itself, was treated with distrust by the working class and with disdain by many intellectuals.

Ozanam was in his teens when he arrived at the University of Paris to study law. He was appalled to encounter there an atmosphere of bitter hostility to the Christian faith. With a number of his fellow students, he formed a study circle in order to present a positive intellectual witness to their faith. The group engaged in many debates and public controversies on behalf of Christianity. Then one day, a student threw at Ozanam this derisive challenge: "You Christians are fine at arguing, but what do you ever do?"

It was in the moment that young Frederic Ozanam was struck by a basic insight: Christianity is not about ideas, but about deeds inspired by love. His fine arguments were useless unless they were validated by how he lived his life. He resolved to start a fellowship of Christian lay people who would immerse themselves in the world of the poor and perform acts of service at personal sacrifice. This fellowship became the St. Vincent de Paul Society.

In making this commitment, Frederic Ozanam died to himself. He picked up his cross, and followed after Jesus. So too do we.

WHO IS THIS MAN?

His face is well known to many. You first notice the eyes: kind and loving, a piercing glance, somehow amused and formidable at the same time. A man who has found something. Who is this man?

Many years after his death, rioting mobs in Paris smashed all the religious statues they could find, except his. He had done so much good for their ancestors, the poor and unfortunate, that they considered him a national hero. Who is this man?

And now, hundreds of years later, more than two million people of every race, and 268 associations and congregations claim him as patron. Who is this man?

This man is Vincent de Paul. He was not born a saint nor did virtue come easily to him. A peasant farmer's son, Vincent had a practical intelligence, a somewhat gloomy disposition, and he knew himself to be stubborn, irritable and slow moving. He would become, in time, a "Father of his Country" and the Patron Saint of Charity.

Initially, Vincent sought to escape the poverty he knew so well as a child by becoming a priest and attaching himself to a wealthy family. But upon attaining exactly that, his life was turned upside down by an encounter with a poor penitent. This grace-filled moment was his turning point and for Vincent, as for us, there is no substitute for this direct, hands-on relationship with the poor.

Experiences like this eventually gave rise in Vincent to an original vision that would govern his approach to spirituality, which is to say, his prayer, his service, his life itself. Spirituality is the way one is energized and how one directs that energy. Vincent found it in prayer and among the poor, and focused everything on the poor in an incredibly active and productive life poured out in their service.

And yet, amazingly, Vincent organized so many services and involved so many people without idealizing the poor or romanticizing work with them. He often spoke of how difficult the poor could be; how demanding, how challenging. "Only for your love will the poor forgive you the bread you give them." Although society often condemns the poor, the Father of the Poor urges us to see them as God's little ones, abandoned and neglected by system and circumstance.

Two fundamental characteristics of St. Vincent merit our attention:

PRAYER: one wonders how Vincent found time to pray! Yet in the midst of a myriad of projects and programs, he insists, "Give me a person of prayer and he or she will be capable of anything." His secret was prayer.

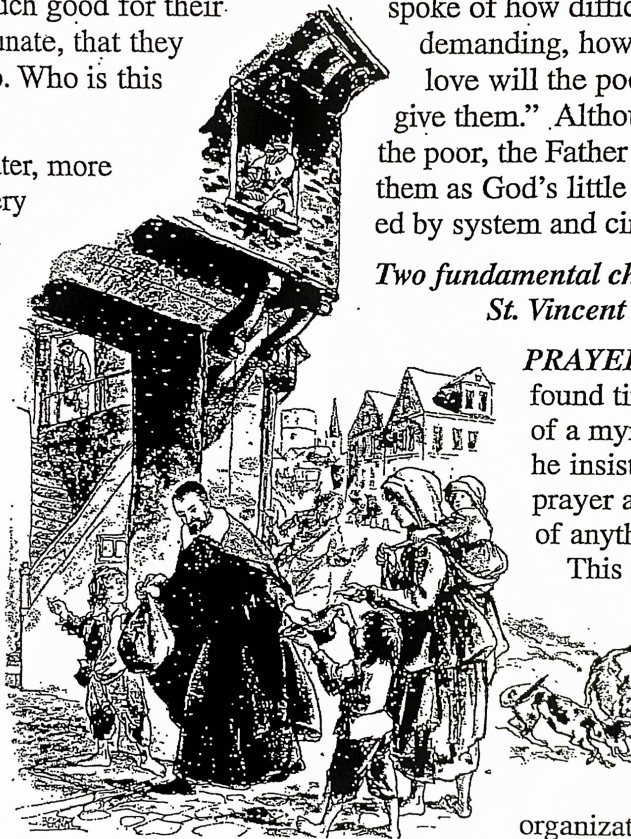

This great man of action was also a contemplative caught up in God and consumed by God's love.

PRACTICAL LOVE: never a theorist, Vincent was eminently practical, an organizational genius, who urges us to "make your affective love effective."

People flocked to work with him and ever since collaboration has been a hallmark of true Vincentian work.

This is the man who inspired Frédéric Ozanam. This is the one whose example sparks so many great acts of compassion and charity throughout the world by the Society that bears his name and by all those who discover that "we cannot better secure our happiness than by living and dying in the service of the poor." ■

Never give your personal information to anyone regardless of who they say they are. Scammers prey upon parishioners and are active in our area.

We have the HAPPY situation in our Parish of many activities! The Church, Chapel and both the halls are in high demand. To avoid disappointment or misunderstanding, please make sure you schedule your space needs through the Parish office, as far in advance as possible. We have many ministries, and to accommodate all requests, we have only ONE central scheduling system: through the Parish office. Please help US help YOU by channeling all room/church/hall space reservations through the office staff.

Thank you!!

Question of the Week:

God's Generosity

The landowner said "Take what belongs to you and go; I choose to give to this last the same as I give to you. Am I not allowed to do what I choose with what belongs to me? Or are you envious because I am generous?"
(Matthew 20:14-15)

For Adults: what lessons do you draw from today's Gospel? How has God been generous to you in this way?

For Children: Who is generous to you even when you do not always deserve it?

Annual Financial Report for Fiscal Year 2023

Summary:

The first three years of this decade have been full of ups and downs. We've seen a pandemic come and go, and the daily news brings us reports of a world 'disconnecting' as well as tales of great hope, charity and the grace of our loving God!

YOU, our dear Parishioners, never cease to amaze us with your incredible generosity. Our commitment of continuing our outreach to poverty-stricken regions in various parts of the world, particularly our sponsored Parishes in Haiti, Nigeria, Nepal and Ecuador is met and exceeded by your generosity. We are truly a Parish that embodies a spirit of mission and concern for all God's children.

We are all aware that the day-to-day rising costs are impacting on the absolutely necessary things needed to run a household. The Church is no exception! Utility bills, supplies, necessary maintenance for our two-campus Parish, are skyrocketing. We are dealing with State and Federal mandated wage increases, essential office supply costs, (paper costs have risen over 40%), as well as liturgical supplies, to name but a few. You who are trying to balance your own household budgets can appreciate the task that we have in managing the resources of the Household of God!

The fact is that our Offertory for our ordinary expenses have just not kept pace with rising costs, in spite of our very best efforts to economize! The close of this fiscal year on June 30th left us with a deficit of just under $50,000. This is the first year in over three decades in which our Offertory did not cover our expenses. A legacy from the estate of one of our Parishioners helped to fill that gap, but we cannot rely on legacies to maintain our Parish.

And so, we DO ask that you prayerfully consider increasing your weekly gift to the Parish – literally, a cost-of-living increase for your Parish! A small sacrifice from each family can and does make a huge difference in meeting our needs. Cutting back or limiting the services we provide is not something that any of us wants to consider, but we do have to ask for your timely generosity to maintain the level of service that you have come to expect and that you deserve!

With YOUR help we can meet this challenge! In the past, we have had parishioners who have remembered St. Andrew's in their Will or estate plan and that has been a tremendous help – especially this year! Please consider making a bequest to St. Andrew's when structuring your estate plans. Our GOALS, established by our Parish/Finance Council, will continue to be:

- Managing all the resources you provide responsibly and transparently!
- Increasing the use of online-giving!
- Expanding our mission outreach here at home and with our mission partners abroad! (We presently support two F.O.C.U.S. missionaries/evangelists (Alicia and MaKenna) on college campuses, and one N.E.T. missionary working with high school youth (Julian))
- Supporting the needs of our local community through our partnership with the St. Vincent de Paul Society, the Knights of Columbus, and the Ladies of St. Andrew's!
- Reaching out to those still hesitating to return to in-person Mass AND also livestreaming the Masses and other events for our homebound parishioners!
- Increasing opportunities to volunteer and supporting our volunteers!

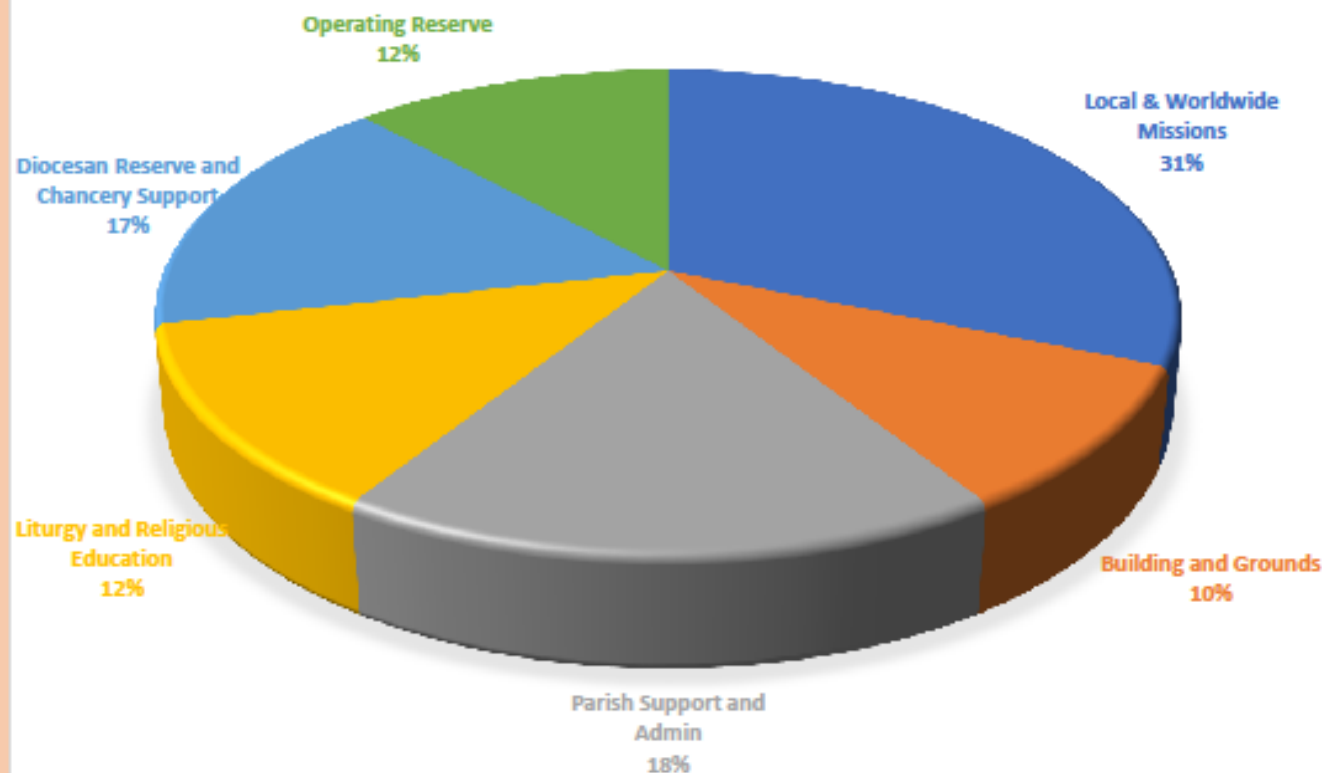

- Encouraging and supporting worship and adoration of the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist, as part of the National Eucharistic Revival taking place in the Church!

We thank God for YOU and for stretching your generosity beyond our Parish, literally throughout the world! You are a people of great faith, great kindness, and extraordinary charity.
Blessings to you all!
